Search

The screenshot shows a search bar with the text "How to write a paper" and a dropdown menu showing "how to write a paper". To the right of the search bar is a "Basic search" dropdown menu and a magnifying glass icon. Below the search bar are radio buttons for "W", "Author", "Series", and "List". An arrow points from the magnifying glass icon to the "Search TCD Library or elsewhere" section.

Search TCD Library or elsewhere

Select  to transfer your search to TCD Library (or others). A new window with the completed search in your chosen location opens.

Search options

Enter your search terms into any of the fields you want to search and click . You can use any combination of search fields. Subject field searches for MeSH headings. If you want to do a keyword search instead, use the Main search field.

Search tools

Choose from the following – defaults to best match:

Search tool definitions

Best match	presents matches in the order of Exact Match, the phrase, all the words, any of the words.
All words	performs a Boolean “AND” search, looking for resources that contain all of the words specified, but not necessarily together.
Any of the words	performs a Boolean “OR” search where at least one word out of several words in a search query will be in a resource.
Phrase	searches for resources that contain the specified terms in the specified order. It is the same as putting search terms into quotes (“”).

Exact match only displays records that are a 100% match for the entered search term. It will not display a result when the terms used are part of a larger title or subject etc.

Limits

The screenshot shows a library search interface with a sidebar on the left containing links: HOME, MY PORTAL, OTHER SEARCHES, and MODIFY RESULTS. The main search area includes a search bar with a dropdown menu set to 'Find best match'. To the right of the search bar are checkboxes for 'Documents', 'Search within current results only', and 'Include Non-Physical Items' (which is checked). Below these are input fields for 'Title ... enter here', 'Year From', 'Year To', 'Author ... enter here', 'Subject ... enter here', 'Publisher ... enter here', and 'Series ... enter here'. At the bottom, there are two dropdown menus: 'Types' (with options: All, Article, Audiobook, Book) and 'Collections' (with options: All, Archive Books, Archive Journals, Audio-Visual Collection).

Available copies only restricts results to those that are actually available in the library, excluding copies on loan, missing, on hold etc.

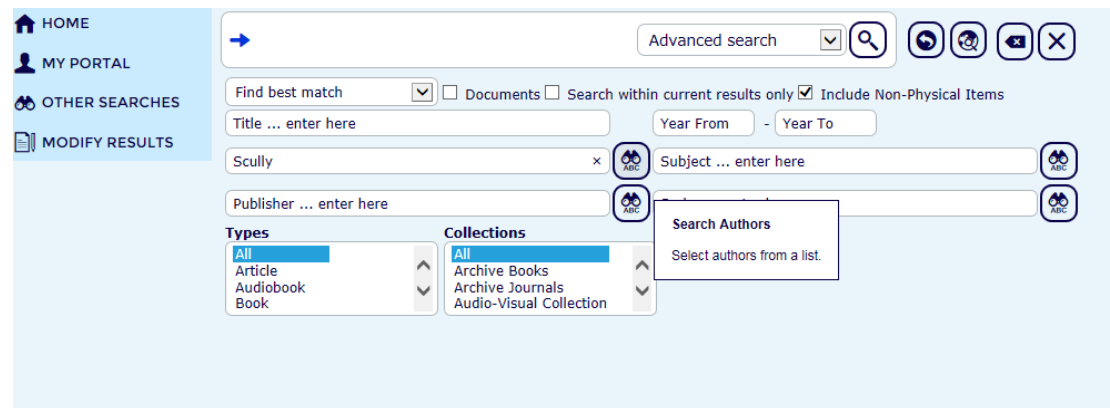

Search within current results only refines a search via the criteria in Advanced search for the current list result

Include non-physical items defaults to ticked, if unticked excludes online resources , websites etc.

Year From Year To restricts to a particular publication date range

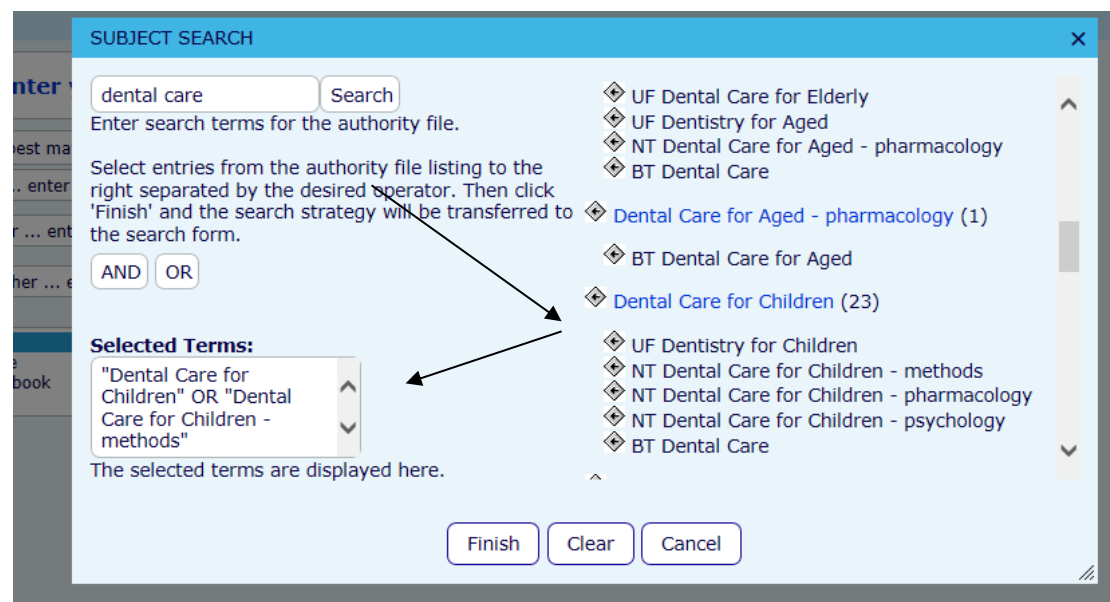

Collections limits by collection in which resource is located

Author, Subject, Series and Publisher Authority Lookup

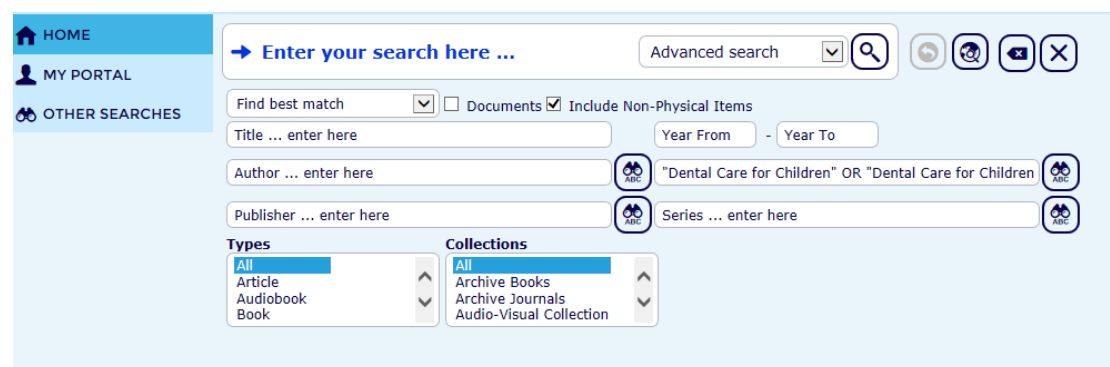

The screenshot shows the main search interface with a sidebar on the left containing links: HOME, MY PORTAL, OTHER SEARCHES, and MODIFY RESULTS. The main area has a search bar with a dropdown menu set to 'Advanced search'. Below the search bar are checkboxes for 'Find best match', 'Documents', 'Search within current results only', and 'Include Non-Physical Items'.
